Criterion 06: Governance, Leadership and Management

Key Indicator: 6.1 Institutional Vision and Leadership

Metric No. 6.1.1: The Institutional governance and leadership are in accordance with Vision and mission of the institution, and it is visible in various institutional practices such as NEP implementation, sustained institutional growth, de-centralization, participation in the institutional governance and in their short term and long-term institutional perspective plan.

Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya (DSVV) serves as a model of governance and leadership deeply aligned with its founding vision and mission. The university's motto, "A University for the Global Cultural & Spiritual Renaissance," reflects its distinctive approach. This is evident in its practices, such as the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP), continuous institutional growth, decentralization, participatory governance, and both short-term and long-term planning.

Vision

Inspired by the teachings of Pt. Shriram Sharma Acharya, DSVV has designed its academic programs to ensure the effective realization of its objectives. The university aims to combine modern education with spiritual guidance to cultivate graduates who are not only skilled and well-rounded but also possess a deep scientific understanding of spiritual transformation. These graduates are driven to make meaningful contributions to society. The motto, "A University for the Global Cultural & Spiritual Renaissance," aptly captures this vision.

Mission

The university's mission includes:

1. Merging traditional education with science and spirituality.
2. Nurturing students who are dedicated, virtuous, and knowledgeable.
3. Integrating scientific spirituality into everyday life.
4. Developing citizens with strong nationalistic values.
5. Cultivating future leaders who embody human values and promote universal brotherhood.

Institutional Governance Aligned with Vision and Mission

DSVV's governance framework is structured to bring its vision and mission to life through the following key areas:

1. Academic Programs: The curriculum integrates modern education with spiritual training, producing graduates who excel both academically and spiritually.
2. Administrative Structure: The administration supports students' holistic development, emphasizing academic achievement and character building.

Implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP)

DSVV's governance aligns with the NEP 2020 through:

1. Multidisciplinary Approach: Expanding interdisciplinary programs to support holistic education.
2. Skill Development: Prioritizing practical skills and employability, in line with NEP guidelines.
3. Indian Knowledge Systems: Emphasizing Indian cultural wisdom, aligning with NEP's focus.
4. Flexible Learning: Offering multiple entry and exit options in degree programs as recommended by the NEP.

Sustained Institutional Growth

Since its inception, DSVV has seen steady growth in academic expansion, infrastructure, research, and community outreach.

Decentralization and Participatory Governance

DSVV promotes decentralized, participatory governance by:

1. Allowing departmental autonomy.
2. Encouraging faculty involvement.
3. Including student representation.

Short-term and Long-term Planning

DSVV incorporates both short-term and long-term strategies:

- Short-term: Annual academic and administrative goals, along with regular curriculum updates.
- Long-term: Five-year strategic plans and decade-long vision documents for institutional growth.

Unique Governance Features

Several distinct aspects define DSVV's governance model:

1. Value-based leadership.
2. Holistic student development.
3. A global perspective rooted in Indian culture.

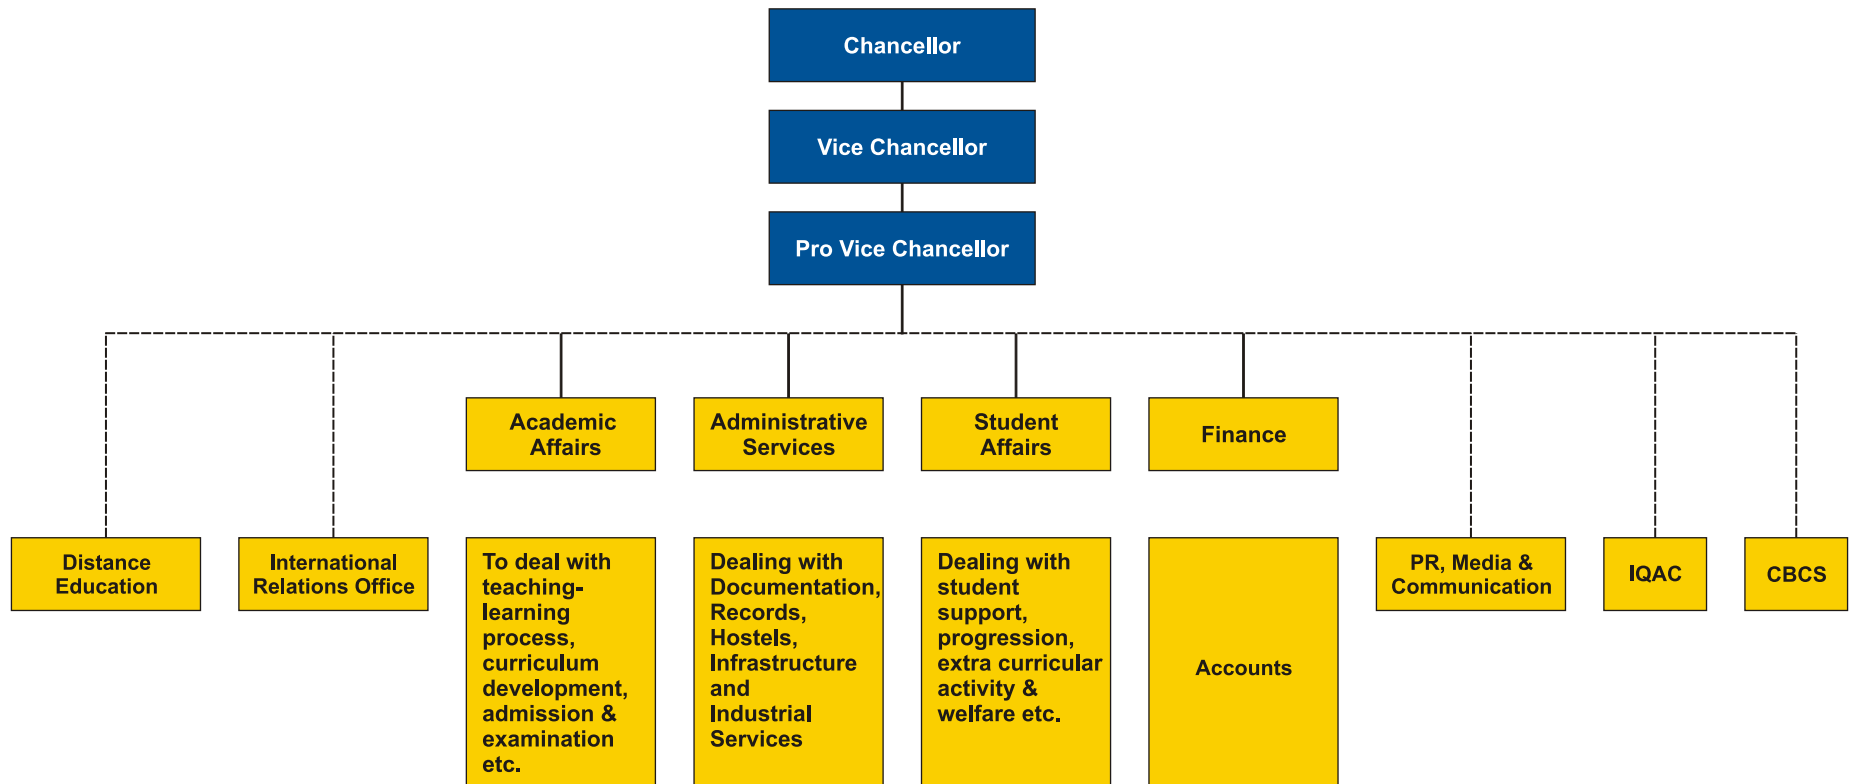

In conclusion, Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya's governance and leadership are a testament to its unwavering commitment to its founding vision and mission. By blending traditional wisdom with modern educational practices, DSVV has fostered a unique institutional culture that supports the holistic development of its students.
