Criterion 06: Governance, Leadership and Management

Key Indicator: 6.1 Institutional Vision and Leadership

Metric No. 6.1.1: The Institutional governance and leadership are in accordance with Vision and mission of the institution, and it is visible in various institutional practices such as NEP implementation, sustained institutional growth, de-centralization, participation in the institutional governance and in their short term and long-term institutional perspective plan.

Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya (DSVV) exemplifies an institutional governance and leadership model that is deeply rooted in its founding vision and mission. "A University for the Global Cultural & Spiritual Renaissance" is the university motto.

This unique approach is reflected in various institutional practices, including the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP), sustained institutional growth, decentralization, participatory governance, and both short-term and long-term institutional perspective planning.

Vision

The University, inspired by the teachings of Pt. Shriram Sharma Acharya, has structured its academic programs to ensure that the stated objectives are effectively achieved and applied with efficiency.

Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya's vision is to blend modern education with spiritual guidance, aiming to develop well-rounded, skilled, and spiritually uplifted graduates who have a strong scientific understanding of spiritual transformation and are motivated to contribute positively to society. The motto statement of the University is hence aptly framed as 'A University for the Global Cultural & Spiritual Renaissance'.

Mission

The University's mission is outlined as follows:

1. To blend traditional education with science and spirituality.

2. To nurture dedicated, virtuous, and knowledgeable students.
3. To integrate scientific spirituality into everyday life.
4. To develop citizens who embody strong nationalistic values.

To cultivate future leaders with a deep sense of human values and universal brotherhood.

Institutional Governance Aligned with Vision and Mission

DSVV's governance model is designed to actualize its vision and mission through several key aspects:

1. Academic Programs: The curriculum is crafted to integrate contemporary education with spiritual training, fostering well-rounded graduates who possess both scientific acumen and spiritual mindfulness.
2. Administrative Structure: The University's administration is organized to support the holistic development of students, emphasizing both academic excellence and character formation.

Implementation of National Education Policy (NEP)

DSVV's governance structure has been proactive in aligning with the National Education Policy 2020:

1. Multidisciplinary Approach: The University has enhanced its interdisciplinary offerings, reflecting the NEP's emphasis on holistic and multidisciplinary education.
2. Skill Development: Increased focus on practical skills and employability, in line with NEP's recommendations.
3. Indian Knowledge Systems: DSVV's existing emphasis on Indian culture and wisdom aligns naturally with NEP's promotion of Indian Knowledge Systems.
4. Flexible Learning Pathways: Implementation of multiple entry and exit options in degree programs, as suggested by NEP.

Sustained Institutional Growth

The university has demonstrated consistent growth since its inception covering Academic Expansion, Infrastructure Development, Research Activities and Community Outreach.

Decentralization and Participatory Governance

DSVV's governance model emphasizes decentralization and participation:

1. Departmental Autonomy
2. Faculty Involvement
3. Student Representation

Short-term and Long-term Institutional Perspective Planning

The university's governance approach includes both short-term and long-term planning:

Short-term Planning:

1. Annual academic and administrative goals aligned with the institutional mission
2. Regular review and update of curricula to maintain relevance and quality

Long-term Planning:

1. Five-year strategic plans that outline the institution's growth trajectory
2. Vision documents that project the university's aspirations over a decade

Unique Aspects of DSVV's Governance

Several distinctive features characterize DSVV's governance model:

1. Value-Based Leadership
2. Holistic Student Development
3. Global Perspective with Indian Roots

Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya's governance and leadership model stands as a testament to the institution's commitment to its founding vision and mission. By seamlessly integrating traditional wisdom with modern educational practices, DSVV has created a unique institutional culture that fosters holistic development of students.
